

The 34th Annual National Government Publishing Association's (NGPA) Conference

October 17-20, 2010
Sheraton Oceanfront,
Virginia Beach, VA

The NGPA is a government print/information solutions community consisting of local, state, federal, academic administration, International and corporate membership who interacts throughout the year through listserv, Webinars, monthly teleconference executive board meetings, promoting regional activity for membership drives, plus networking through the annual NGPA conference.

Our government members are leaders in the print and related information services industry with purchasing authority. Corporate members are upstanding industry service providers who partner with the NGPA to provide educational opportunities and assist in keeping our government membership abreast of industry advancements.

Still not convinced that this is the conference for you? Contact the President and Conference Host at info@govpublishing.org with questions or for more specific information. And/or, visit us online at www.govpublishing.com to view past conference highlights.
